Press Release

Helping Future Leaders Create Success

Vue Coaching and Sales Training supports –South Piedmont Community College

Monroe, NC- September 19, 2014:

Continuing its' community service program Vue Coaching and Sales Training will be conducting two workshops for the Early College Program at SPCC in Monroe, NC. "Preparing our youth, future business leaders and entrepreneurs is critically important in the competitive world of business," says Richard Marcus, President of Vue Coaching and Sales Training. Marcus notes, "my goal is to always give workshop participants a competitive edge.

Marcus is pleased to announce the creation of a customized workshop targeted with Millennials in mind. The interactive sessions will consist of three modules: Public Speaking, Authentic Networking and Career Insights. The three modules will be educational and provide valuable insight while expanding critical skills. As a youth Marcus remembers the importance of some early guidance he received and he wants to be able to continue to contribute to our youth. Marcus, a Certified Sales Coach, Certified Sales Trainer, Certified Interviewer and former high school educator always enjoyed working with young energetic students. The students will leave with practical, actionable and helpful information at the conclusion of the workshop.
